

The Great Fire
of London

Jack Clarke

In 1666 London was very heaving with people and it was snelly.

They got her, poor not the fire, and she put up a fire.

Fire was a sense
because they did not have electricity, and was in both the house and to get electricity they did it.

Tom is a ^{foot} part of the night he put out the ~~flame~~ ^{flame} out a ~~stray~~ ^{stray} ~~under~~ ^{under} ~~hand~~ ^{hand} ~~hand~~ ^{hand} on ~~summer~~ ^{summer} ~~cellu~~ ^{cellu}

Sunday - 2nd Sept
Tom is not at school with the fire the fire is flowing over the mountain spread on so the lava is

Monday 3rd September
The fire was wasteful that's what made a few of us
and with the drum the scum of the people feeling sad people made tuesday 4th sept 2008

The fire was so hot so the fire fighters could not put out the fire and the streets were closed was blowing the people

Wednesday 5th September
 The King decided to make groups of people who then dispart Land did on some places and called to and 87 church but the King showed the how us to be blown up and to light the how us.

The town was ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~can~~ unbearable and ~~87~~ church is burnt down the King ~~get~~ ^{gave} ~~and~~ gave them ~~for~~ ^{for} people and gave them bread.

87 churches was the day and the day the whole London every couple of days the tower of London was
