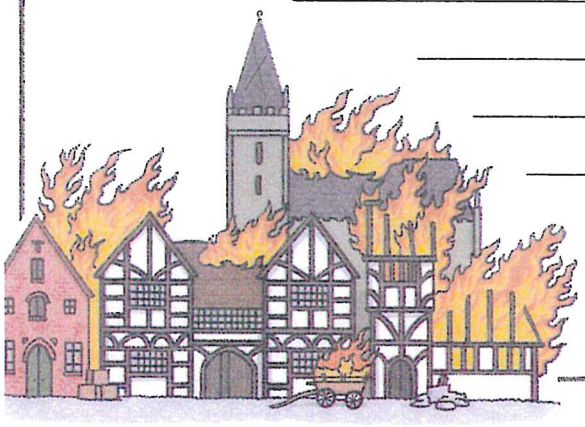
The Great Fire of London

By Jade Richards

On day 3rd September* fire spread thrOu the houSeS. The fire raged.



Sunday 2nd September
In the early hours an ember fell out of the oven and caught some kindling alight.

Tuesday 4th September
The fire had burnt so much that Lots of the city had burnt.
and the people fled.

Wednesday 5th september
The King ordered the houses to be pulled down With firehooks. This bitt work so he ordered the houses and shops to be demkished.

London was unreconisoble arfter the fire it was barty and it had ash all over the place and has the city was lash and the city laie in rooins and 8 churches lewad bur tbaw.

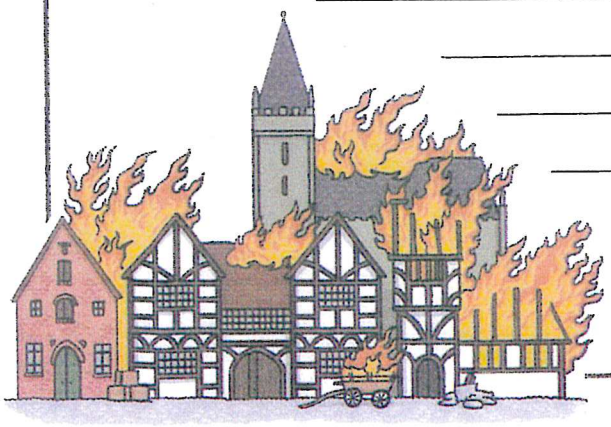
After the fire London needed to be rebuild there was rules about building houses out of stone and brics and the houses Were not allowed to be to close and society said it took 30 years to rebuild London.



Tadee

In [illegible] on bon was Smelly and it [illegible]
Street and it was heaving with people.

twinkl.com